

Cressing Temple gardens, in the unique setting of two magnificent 13th Century barns built by the Knights Templar, are a valuable place of recreation, research, education and garden history.

The Friends of Cressing Temple Gardens are working to protect these special gardens by focusing on their conservation and development.

Becoming a Friend will give you the opportunity to become involved in the work we do, either actively as a volunteer or simply by enjoying the peace and tranquillity offered by visiting the gardens and supporting our work. Benefits of membership include:

- 25% reduction on all plant sales
- Regular newsletter
- Social events
